

3rd Maastricht University – Center of Neuroeconomics (MU-CEN) PhD students progress report meeting

Date and time: 20 May 2019, 9:15-18:00

Venue: SBE, TS53, C-1.03 (9:15-12:40) & C-1.05 (13:00-18:00)

Lunch (12:40 – 14:15): D0.01

During this meeting the PhD students affiliated with MU-CEN will give presentations on their past work and future plans followed by a discussion with the audience. All presentations have the format of 35' presentation + 10' questions and discussion.

Attendance is free but registration is required. Please register no later than, Tuesday, 30 April 2019 for the whole meeting or parts of it by sending an email to <neuroeconomics-sbe@maastrichtuniversity.nl> with “PhD meeting” in subject line.

Program:

- 9:15-9:30 Walk in and opening
- 9:30-10:15 Leticia Rettore Micheli:
“Income mobility (and not income inequality) increases consumption of status goods”
- 10:15-11:00 Marcia Diaz Claudio:
“The effect of implicit movement on self-control and working memory”
- 11:00-11:10 Coffee/tea/chat break
- 11:10-11:55 Marcello Negrini:
“Reciprocal fairness. An investigation with brain stimulation”
- 11:55-12:40 Joyce Mertens:
“Identification of processes in financial decisions”
- 12:40-14:15 Lunch (room D0.01)
- 14:15-15:00 Lina Lozano Montaña:
“The Sharing of Information and the roles of Cognitive and Belief Dissonance”
- 15:00-15:45 Aline Caldeira Dantas:
“A gut feeling: how your brain (and your guts) defines your choices”
- 15:45-16:10 Coffee/tea/chat break with vlaai
- 16:10-16:55 Eveline Vandewal:
“Great Minds Think Alike: Self-Similarity Considerations in Games of Strategic Substitutes”
- 16:55-17:40 Hyemi Jin:
“Decisions under Uncertainty in Social Contexts: The Effects of Social Comparison on Risk-Taking Behavior”
- 17:40-18:00 Closing
- 19:00- MU-CEN dinner (on invitation only)